

He | olined the honor in a speech, replete with wi humor. The result of the first ballot was thus pronounced:

Jas. P. Bates, Barren.....	10
Capt. T. T. Cogar, Jessamine.....	10
E. H. Hobson, Green.....	10
Judge J. M. Rice, Lawrence.....	10

No one receiving a majority, the contest then between Bates and Cogar, and the ballot was thus:

The Democracy of Kentucky, in State Convention assembled, ever loyal to the Constitution of the Union, relying upon the intelligence, virtue and patriotism of the people, hereby re-affirm their time-honored principles:

Resolved, That the resolutions passed at the ment of the Democracy of our State, expressed in county meetings, we cordially extend to present distinguished Chief Magistrate our continued confidence in his ability, integrity and patriotism, and in his devotion to the constitutional rights of all sections of the Union.

Resolved, That the location of Cuba is such that its acquisition is important, and may become essential to the safety of the Southern and Western States, and its honorable acquisition would be beneficial to the interests of the whole Union.

labor in the different States are incompatible the harmonious continuance of the Union that our amazement has only been equalled by disgust at the appeal made to the K. K.'s of South to amalgamate with the fanatics of North, and sacrifice the dearest and most precious rights of the slaveholding States for the

Gov. Wickliffe announced that all the business had been transacted, and closed by congratulating the Democracy on the harmony and feeling which had universally prevailed.

The Wrecking and Escape of the Fillibus hundred and fifty filibusters on board, on way to Nicaragua, has already been announced, and the return of all the passengers mentioned. The New Orleans Crescent, of the 4th, the Lieutenant, white, of the revenue service,

A strong gale of wind from the north and the Susan to leave Mobile Bay far behind in 24 hours after setting sail, and every thing went smoothly until the night of the 15th, when they were approaching Light-house Reef, in the edge of the Bay of Honduras. For two hours he thought to have been in this neighborhood.

seen. Captain Maury said after that, feeling easy, he, after having been in bed a short time, got up and went on deck at about three o'clock the morning. He examined the compass and found the vessel bearing two points out of proper course.

the gloom a long line of breakers directly at "Helm hard up!" was the immediate order to steersman, but that individual, being mamiliar with the Nicaraguan pruning-hook with the spokes of a steering-wheel, put the hard down. Even this might have saved the ened danger. Maury then had the schooner ed directly for the reef, in order to run her as upon it as possible. There was a pretty breeze, and with all sails spread she plunged ward and struck upon the rocks with a ter-shock, which soon filled the water about her floating planks. With the prospect of a

When daylight appeared it was found that the place where they had struck was known as Silver Reef, about sixty miles from Belize Honduras and sixteen from a cluster of small islands, which the dim outlines of the cocoa trees could barely be discerned through the clouds.

slaves negro named Miller, and the other ceded to construct a raft from the wreck for purpose of reaching land, if other means not be obtained. A schooner belonging to soon after appeared, and by making three transferred the whole party to Middle Key last among whom was Captain Maury, leav-

Capt. Maury visited Belize and endeavored to procure a vessel to convey his party to the destination. He found and chartered one for $300 but in consequence of representations made by the person in command of her, Capt. Good-her, and thus, whatever may have been his motive, he succeeded in depriving the emigrants any means of reaching their proposed destination. Capt. Maury had an interview with Mr. Seymour, the British Governor at Belize, who, in the most kind and polite manner, tendered him passage on the British steamer Repulse to was no part of his duty to inquire what brought them there. He saw in them only a number of shipwrecked voyagers, belonging to a country with which his Government wished to have amicable relations, and he should regard their wants in the best manner he could. He addressed the men in similar terms, and all but

[From the St. Louis Democrat of Thursday.]

Deceased was five feet and seven inches some thirty years of age, had dark complexion, between 20 and 25 years, as he was by the bluffs, he found deceased hanged by the neck with two handkerchiefs from the limb of a tree, and that the man appeared to have been about twenty four hours.

and viz: a black hat, and calfskin boots. On his person was a pocket-book containing some business memoranda in German; a plain gold ring; a German leather-book, in which was written the name Christopher Strisburger; and a small tin box, in which was a manuscript in German, the translation of which was given to me by the same person.

24 myself for you. You will no longer find 20 your path in relation to marriage. I do not and pise, do not curse you—for above—there was God- meet each other again, never to be separated. zier Farewell. Be happy."

142 the person of Deputy Marshal Tyler, who ly killed the captain of an American vessel lying in the waters of Canada. The appl was made by Governor General Head thro British Minister at Washington. The Pre immediately sent to U. S. District Attorney de- | for the present.

Au Eloquent Speech of Vice-President Breckenridge.

Upon the occasion of the Senate retiring from their chamber, Vice-President Breckenridge made an elaborate and able valedictory address.

We have only space for the concluding portions:

The Senate is assembled for the last time in this chamber. Henceforth it will be converted to other uses, and it must remain forever consecrated to the memory of the departed orators and statesmen who here engaged in high debates, and shaped the policy of their country. Hereafter the American and the stranger, as they wander through the Capitol, will recall the names of the great orators who here engaged in high debates, and shaped the policy of their country. Hereafter the American and the stranger, as they wander through the Capitol, will recall the names of the great orators who here engaged in high debates, and shaped the policy of their country. Hereafter the American and the stranger, as they wander through the Capitol, will recall the names of the great orators who here engaged in high debates, and shaped the policy of their country. Hereafter the American and the stranger, as they wander through the Capitol, will recall the names of the great orators who here engaged in high debates, and shaped the policy of their country. Hereafter the American and the stranger, as they wander through the Capitol, will recall the names of the great orators who here

engaged in high debates, and shaped the policy of their country. Hereafter the American

and the stranger, as they wander through the

Capitol, will recall the names of the great orators who here engaged in high debates, and

shaped the policy of their country. Hereafter

the American and the stranger, as they wander

through the Capitol, will recall the names of

the great orators who here engaged in high

debates, and shaped the policy of their coun-

try. Hereafter the American and the stranger,

as they wander through the Capitol, will re-

call the names of the great orators who here

engaged in high debates, and shaped the pol-

icy of their country. Hereafter the American

and the stranger, as they wander through the

Capitol, will recall the names of the great or-

ators who here engaged in high debates, and

shaped the policy of their country. Hereafter

the American and the stranger, as they wander

through the Capitol, will recall the names of

the great orators who here engaged in high

debates, and shaped the policy of their coun-

try. Hereafter the American and the stranger,

as they wander through the Capitol, will re-

call the names of the great orators who here

engaged in high debates, and shaped the pol-

icy of their country. Hereafter the American

and the stranger, as they wander through the

Capitol, will recall the names of the great or-

ators who here engaged in high debates, and

shaped the policy of their country. Hereafter

the American and the stranger, as they wander

through the Capitol, will recall the names of

the great orators who here engaged in high

debates, and shaped the policy of their coun-

try. Hereafter the American and the stranger,

as they wander through the Capitol, will re-

call the names of the great orators who here

engaged in high debates, and shaped the pol-

icy of their country. Hereafter the American

and the stranger, as they wander through the

Capitol, will recall the names of the great or-

ators who here engaged in high debates, and

shaped the policy of their country. Hereafter

the American and the stranger, as they wander

through the Capitol, will recall the names of

the great orators who here engaged in high

debates, and shaped the policy of their coun-

try. Hereafter the American and the stranger,

as they wander through the Capitol, will re-

call the names of the great orators who here

engaged in high debates, and shaped the pol-

icy of their country. Hereafter the American

and the stranger, as they wander through the

Capitol, will recall the names of the great or-

ators who here engaged in high debates, and

shaped the policy of their country. Hereafter

the American and the stranger, as they wander

through the Capitol, will recall the names of

the great orators who here engaged in high

debates, and shaped the policy of their coun-

try. Hereafter the American and the stranger,

as they wander through the Capitol, will re-

call the names of the great orators who here

engaged in high debates, and shaped the pol-

icy of their country. Hereafter the American

and the stranger, as they wander through the

Capitol, will recall the names of the great or-

ators who here engaged in high debates, and

shaped the policy of their country. Hereafter

the American and the stranger, as they wander

through the Capitol, will recall the names of

the great orators who here engaged in high

debates, and shaped the policy of their coun-

try. Hereafter the American and the stranger,

as they wander through the Capitol, will re-

call the names of the great orators who here

engaged in high debates, and shaped the pol-

icy of their country. Hereafter the American

and the stranger, as they wander through the

Capitol, will recall the names of the great or-

ators who here engaged in high debates, and

shaped the policy of their country. Hereafter

the American and the stranger, as they wander

through the Capitol, will recall the names of

the great orators who here engaged in high

debates, and shaped the policy of their coun-

try. Hereafter the American and the stranger,

as they wander through the Capitol, will re-

NOTICES.

To Buyers of Goods.—Winter Goods—Such as Blankets, Cloths, Shawls, Merinos, Delains, Silks, Cloths and Cassimeres, in fact any kind of goods, will be found in full variety and at the lowest possible prices.

Spring Goods—It is our purpose to bring out the largest and richest assortment of Dress and Staple Goods ever offered by us, and, moreover, it is our determination not to be undersold by any establishment here or elsewhere, as we purpose buying exclusively for cash.

The friends and customers with whom we have had dealings in former seasons, we shall be most happy to see again, and those whom we have not had the pleasure of supplying, we would cordially invite to call upon us, assuring them that we will on our part to please them shall be waiting.

MARTIN & PENTON,

